We repeat that the forth-coming editions of this bulletin will depend on contributions from you, featuring brief chapter news and more on personalities. The next issue will attempt to list all new registered varities and other new varities of special merit that have not been registered. Any horticultural reports and advice on propagation will be used when of novel character and if space permits.

It has been decided that this bulletin will be published quarterly as follows:

August - September - October	-	August 10th.
November - December - January	-	November 10th.
February - March - April	-	February 10th.
May - June - July	-	May 10th.

Please send in your articles for publication so as to be received by your editor not later than the 15th of the month preceding publication date of the bulletin.

EDITORS NOTE:

Please write your editor and tell him what can be published in our bulletin that will be most helpful and interesting to the Chapter members and Members at Large.
